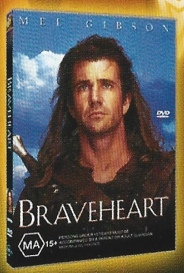
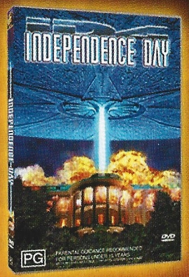
<< Jake Gyllenhaal In DAT
His favourite book is To Kill A Mockingbird, and he has a dog, Atticus, named after its main character.

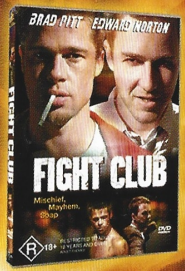
Ben Affleck In Daredevil >>
At 8 years old Ben met his lifelong friend and fellow actor, Matt Damon. They played little league together and took drama classes together.

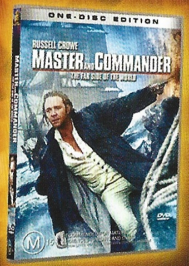
Mel Gibson in Braveheart >>
Gibson almost turned down the role of William Wallace in Braveheart because he thought he was too old for the role. He asked the producers if he could direct it instead. A compromise was made, he could direct the movie if he agreed to portray Wallace.

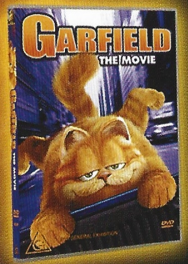




<< Will Smith in I,Robot & ID4
Incorporates the line "Ah Hell Naw!" into all his movies as a running catch phrase like Arnold Schwarzenegger's "I'll Be Back!".







Brad Pitt in Fight Club ^^
Showed his parents the "Chemical Burn" scene to convince them not to watch Fight Club

Russell Crowe in Master & Commander ^^
Cousin of former New Zealand international cricketers Jeff and Martin Crowe.

Garfield in Garfield ^^
"I would like mornings if they started later" – Garfield

<< Hugh Jackman in X-Men 2
Is terribly near-sighted and has extremely blurry vision when he isn't wearing contacts. Even when hosting the Tonys and "Saturday Night Live" Jackman memorised almost everything he had to say so he wouldn't have to struggle to read.
